CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE GROUP

3. Between 0800 and 1530 hours on 8 April 1947, anti-tank firing exercises took place on the airfield under construction at Lessen (W 10). Engaged in the exercise was an anti-tank unit quartered in Gera (K 16) using twenty-four 92mm anti-tank guns.
4. The following four practices were fired:
 - a. Short range stationary targets.
 - b. Short range moving targets.
 - c. Medium range stationary targets.
 - d. Medium range moving targets.
5. On 4 April 1947, at approximately 0900 hours, a military transport loaded with 22 tanks and 20 trucks passed through Merseburg (D 91), heading in an easterly direction. The tanks had ten wheels on either side and a barrel length of approximately 3 meters.
6. Thirteen Red Army officers are undergoing some form of training course in the sugar factory at Mucheln (D 80), near Merseburg.
7. Considerable troop concentrations have taken place in the area Salzwedel - Obisfelde - Kaltendorf (Y 23). Three Red Army generals, previously stationed in Bernburg, are now in this area.
